LIONESS MAGAZINE

The last three years have been... interesting. The global pandemic has impacted every aspect of our lives, our industries, our businesses and changed everything. Except the things that didn't change for female entrepreneurs.

You get a tiny fraction of the funding male entrepreneurs receive. You are less likely to get game-changing media coverage. You are less likely to be invited to give presentations and speeches which could help connect you with customers and partners. You still face bias – both unconscious and otherwise. You're more likely to be a target for scams and unscrupulous operators.

And you are still more likely to be responsible for home and family. That's on top of running your business and continuing to navigate all the complexities that go along with that.

LIONESS IS HERE TO HELP

We're here to give you access to tools and techniques to help you grow your company. We're not here to dangle vague hints, incomplete materials, and nebulous knowledge. We want every article, every interview to provide deep insights and precise information that you can use immediately.

We also want to inspire you. On those days when it's hard just to get out of bed, visit Lioness for a boost. See what's possible and know that we SEE you, in all your glory and all your possibilities.

We are here to cheer you on and showcase your successes. Let us be your partner. And let us be your partner if you are also here to help women achieve business success. If you are an ally and a supporter, let us help connect you to new customers and partners.

MEET THE TEAM

Lioness is proud to have a team of talented journalists sharing the stories of female entrepreneurs. Each week, we dive into their world to give you the news that matters. Here are a few of the members working behind the scenes to produce Lioness Magazine.

LAURA GRANT

MANAGING EDITOR

Laura Grant works with our editorial team and regular contributors to produce a publication that offers equal parts inspiration and information. Laura is a graduate of Western New England University.

KERRY FRISTOE

WRITER/EDITOR

Kerry Fristoe is a mom, a daughter, a dog mom, and a writer. When she's not drafting pieces for clients, she's waxing poetic about films, reading books on ghastly crimes, or thinking about Godzilla.

BOBBIE CARLTON

OWNER

Bobbie Carlton, founder of Carlton PR & Marketing, Innovation Nights and Innovation Women, is a speaker as well as an award-winning marketing, PR and social media professional.
